2022 Respect Life Resources: Called to Serve Moms in Need

This year's Respect Life materials focus on serving moms in need and are being released in two phases. (To be clear, a diocese or parish does not have to be in the process of launching "Walking with Moms in Need" in order to make use of this year's materials, which highlight service to mothers.)

The first phase is being made available at www.respectlife.org/called-to-serve. You are welcome to use anything posted there immediately.

A second set of materials specifically for Respect Life Month will be released later in the summer for use during October.

“Married love differs from any other love in the world. By its nature, the love of husband and wife is so complete, so ordered to a lifetime of communion with God and each other, that it is open to creating a new human being they will love and care for together. ... That power to create a new life with God is at the heart of what spouses share with each other.”

“A woman with an unexpected pregnancy may have any number of fears and challenges: facing judgment from her friends and family, losing her job or housing, or being abandoned by the father of her child. Following Mary’s example, we can ask ourselves how to better know these mothers, listen to them, seek understanding, and help them obtain the necessities of life for themselves and their children.”
